Syracuse, NY- The Syracuse VA Medical Center will host a Telehealth Day and Open House on Thursday, March 7th from 10 am to 2 pm in the Medical Center auditorium on the ground floor.

This event will showcase the very latest in equipment and services available to patients that will improve access to care and reduce travel time for appointments and consultations with healthcare providers.

“The VA is committed to offering more Telehealth services for Veterans,” according to William Ashby, Telehealth Coordinator at the Syracuse VA. “Areas that are especially suited to the use of this technology include mental health; and other specialties such as cardiology, audiology and speech pathology,” said Ashby.

Thursday’s event is open to all Veterans and family members. The Syracuse VA Medical Center is located at 800 Irving Ave. on University Hill. For more information call 315-425-2422.
